

Selected Services for SLIS Students

Support & Opportunities for New Librarians & Students:

- Grants to attend conferences
- YALSA 101 Program at ALA Annual Conference
- Get published in YALS or YAttitudes
- YALSA's Online Professional Development Center
- Intern opportunities at conferences or the YALSA office
- E-courses

Virtual Tools & Networking:

- YALSA's Student Interest Group: <http://yalsasig.ning.com/>
- Discussion & Interest Groups
- Blog: <http://yalsa.ala.org/blog/>
- YALSA Online Discussion Lists
- Twitter: <http://twitter.com/yalsa>
- Nominations for literary awards & lists: www.ala.org/yalsa/booklists
- Wiki: wikis.ala.org/yalsa

YALSA is the fastest growing division of the American Library Association. For over 50 years YALSA has been the world leader in advocating for excellence in young adult library services and in selecting reading, listening and viewing for teens.

To learn more about YALSA and our programs & services for students and new members, go to: www.ala.org/yalsa or contact the YALSA office. We'd be happy to hear from you!

Young Adult Library Services Association
50 E. Huron Street
Chicago, IL 60611
yalsa@ala.org
1 (800) 545-2433 x4390